We are an independent registered charity and a company limited by guarantee, supported by Arts Council England and Birmingham City Council.

Sound It Out has undergone an enormous transformation over the past four years and is now positioned at the forefront of participatory arts. We have a reputation for creating high quality, dynamic and innovative music-based programmes that are delivered across four key sectors: Children and Young People; Cohesion; Professional Development; and Wellbeing.

We are looking for a high profile individual who can lead our organisation with innovation and passion, who brings a range of skills and the qualities and expertise of governance required to strategically steer Sound It Out through the next exciting phase of its growth and development.

We are also open to accepting expressions of interest from potential new Board Members.

For an information pack please email Rachel Cranny at rachelcranny@sounditout.co.uk or call on 0121 772 8655.

- Deadline for expressions of interest:
5pm Monday 5th July 2010
- Interview date: Week commencing 12th July 2010
